Additional information

A competitor has recently entered the market. The sales director has therefore included an amount of $40 000 for advertising in the October budget to boost the sales for November and December. During a recent budget committee meeting, the finance director expressed concern about the cash position at 30 November and suggested that the budget for advertising should be cut.

- (d) Advise the directors whether or not the advertising budget should be cut. Justify your answer.

Blank lined paper for writing.
